

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Muscular Dystrophy is one of several related neuromuscular diseases that afflict hundreds of thousands of our fellow citizens throughout the nation, many of them children; and,

WHEREAS, The Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, which is dedicated to finding the causes and developing effective treatments to these crippling disorders, also provides its patients with excellent medical care; and,

WHEREAS, These medical services and clinical research require the emotional and financial support of the public, and it is through the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon that America can make known its strong concerns for the less fortunate; and,

WHEREAS, Coast-to-coast coverage of this important event has been a primary source of nationwide public support for the MDA's life-extending programs; and,

WHEREAS, Medical progress, itself a product of a compassionate and generous public, has raised realistic hope for significant further progress in the fight against dystrophy in the foreseeable future:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Monday, September 6, 1982, as in South Dakota, and urge that all citizens of this State join the work of the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America by contributing to this Jerry Lewis Telethon so all those who wait to be set free from the burdens of dystrophy may have their dream fulfilled.

ATTEST:

Alvin Lundberg
ALVIN LUNDBERG, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this eighteenth day of August, in the fourth year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and eighty-two
